

Scoring of community activities

Chapter 1 Purpose

The purpose of these instructions is to determine the scoring of community activities for the community scholarship, study scholarship and exchange scholarship referred to in Section 1 of AYY's scholarship regulation. In accordance with Section 9 of the scholarship regulation, the positions and duties completed before the beginning of the ongoing year and the meetings of the university administration and the representative council which took place before the beginning of the ongoing year are taken into account.

Chapter 2 Calculation of the community activities score

1 § Method of calculation

Community activities are determined by adding together the scores presented in this chapter for activities and duties which the applicant has stated in the application. The applicant can receive scores for the same duty more than once if the applicant has attended to the duty for several years or acted in several duties under the same title. However, if a duty gives automatic membership in another section/committee/etc., extra points are only awarded if there is significant, voluntary additional work involved in the task.-The combined scores are divided by 2.5 before they are applied to the applicants' total scoring.

The allocation committee may also grant scores for such AYY's activities or activities which take place close to AYY, which are not specifically mentioned in these instructions. In these cases, scores must be allocated in such a way that they are in line with the duties described in this regulation and the points granted for these duties.

The allocation committee has the right to make a different interpretation from the scoring presented by the applicant under Section 7 of the scholarship guideline. In this case, the interpretation of the allocation committee prevails.
